Phone Number: _____ E-mail: _____

Please answer the following questions:

1. Do you have children who will receive more than half of their support* (including housing expenses) from you during the 2018-2019 academic year?  Yes  No

*Financial aid refunds do not count as a means of support in this definition.

2. Do you have legal dependents (other than your spouse or children) that live with you AND receive more than half of their support from you now and during the 18-19 academic year?  Yes  No

3. Will you live with your parents during the 2018-19 academic year?  Yes  No

Per Federal Student Aid Regulations: "If the student is living with a parent who is paying for most of the household expenses, the parent would usually be considered the primary source of support to the child, and the student would answer "NO" to the FAFSA question about children or legal dependents they support."

If you answered yes to Question 3, please complete the following section. Documentation is required for each line item. If you are paying for any of the expenses listed in cash, please provide a signed statement by the person you are paying that confirms this.

Once this form is reviewed, additional documentation could be required. Final determination of your dependency status will be made after review of all information received. If your status changes to dependent, your FAFSA will be updated by GVSU and will be reported as "rejected" to the Central Processing Service and you will be required to make the necessary corrections to your FAFSA. If your independent status is not confirmed, you have the right to appeal by contacting the GVSU Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships.

By signing this worksheet, I certify that all of the information reported to qualify for federal student aid is complete and correct. I further understand that purposely giving false or misleading information may result in a fine, jail terms, or both.
